

COMMUNAL LEISURE

For the expansion of collective aesthetic capacity

ISSUE 3: CONTRIBUTOR CALL OUT

Communal Leisure is a critical space for discussion of music, art and politics. We're looking for columns, articles, essays, images and illustrations that unpack ideas of work, labour, 'DIY' culture, and leisure. We edit these collectively and actively encourage new writers, non-standard language and unfinished ideas. Our editorial process is collaborative, and as yet has no official policy, but we work towards a world free from oppression based on race, gender, sexuality, ability, bodies and class.

Send ideas for articles, columns and artworks to the below addresses, or get in touch for more information.

Format and Image guidelines

Formatting

- All writing requires a title and authors name (subheadings are also fine)
- Full text style guide available on request
- please avoid URL's and hyperlinks - this is a print publication
- Keep footnotes to a minimum. Articles that cite only cis white men not accepted.

Photos and images

- All photos and images will be black and white when printed
- Where ever possible - Images should be a minimum 200mm wide and no less than 300dpi
- Please include your name in the file name.

Deadline : November 5th 2017
